To the R. W. Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Tennessee:

In presenting my annual report, I desire to congratulate your grand body on the peace and harmony that have prevailed throughout this jurisdiction the past year, for the good work that has been done, and the evidences of approaching prosperity, after several years of dark and doubt through which we groped our way almost without hope. At your last annual convocation I was not able to give correct statistics of the membership, owing to the absence of reports but when the reports were all in and tabulated, they showed, for the year ending June 30, 1880, a net increase on ninety-one. This was the first increase in membership for six consecutive years. For the year ending June 30, 1881, the following table will show, within a fraction, our membership. Severs lodges have not yet reported, and of course the part of my report will have to be revised. CONCLUSION.

Finally, let us not be discouraged. We cannot which encom-Finally, let us not be discouraged. We cannot expect to overcome the difficulties which encompass us in a day. That benignant Providence which has guided us in the past will bless us in the future, if we are only true to ourselves and the noble order we represent. We are losing some of our members by non-payment of dues, and a few old lodges are becoming defunct, but others come in to fill up the ranks. May we not hope that Odd-Fellowship is being purged? We are having fewer lodges, but they are better once; fewer members, but they are more determined. With a grateful heart for the assistance rendered me in the discharge of my duties, and the many tokens of kindness from numerous brethren, and wishing you a pleasant and harmonious session, I am, fra-

DAVENPORT, IOWA, October 20 .- The river s still rising, and the lower part of town is water lacks only seventeen inches of being as The Situation at Quincy.

QUINCY, ILL, October 20 .- There were eight inches of water on the tracks of the Quincy, Missouri and Pacific division of the Wabash Railroad across the river, and the embankment was washed badly. A contruction train was sent out with rock and a thousand bags of sand to stop the water from cutting the road away. The St. Louis, Misouri and Northwestern is under water for several miles, and the Louisiana branch of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy is much troubled with the flood. In the city the large factories along the river have sus-pended, but the damage is com-paratively light. Hundreds of cattle are wandering about in the Missouri bottoms, and as they take to the raiload tracks to keep out of the water they greatly impede trains.
